

Historic Haile Homestead
At Kanapaha Plantation

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Historic Haile Homestead, Inc. is the not-for-profit organization supporting the preservation, interpretation and operation of the Historic Haile Homestead at Kanapaha Plantation in Gainesville, Florida. Annual dues will contribute to the support and activities of the Homestead. The membership year is from January 1st to December 31st. Dues for the current calendar year are discounted 50 % after August 31st. One membership card will be issued per membership payment. Members must display their membership card to the docents to receive tour benefits.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS AND MEMBER BENEFITS:

KANAPAHA PARTNER: $20 - $99

Thomas Evans Haile named his plantation "Kanapaha," which is Indian for "small thatched houses." Kanapaha Partners will receive the Historic Haile Homestead's quarterly newsletter, recognition on a poster displayed at the Homestead, notice of special events and $1 off tours for the member and guests accompanying the member.

CRAFTSMEN'S GUILD: $100 - $249

Dedicated to the enslaved craftsmen who built the Historic Haile Homestead. Members of the Craftsmen's Guild will receive the Historic Haile Homestead's quarterly newsletter, recognition on a poster displayed at the Homestead, notice of special events, $1 off tours for the member and guests accompanying the member, and two Gift Certificates for tours at the Homestead (valid for one membership year).

CAMDEN BENEFACTORS SOCIETY: $250 - $499

Having relocated here from South Carolina, the Hailes and Chesnuts maintained close ties with their Camden families. Members of the Camden Benefactors Society will receive the Historic Haile Homestead's quarterly newsletter, recognition on a poster displayed at the Homestead, notice of special events, two Gift Certificates for tours at the Homestead (valid for one membership year) and free tours for the membership year for the member and one guest accompanying the member.

BENNET'S CIRCLE OF FRIENDS: $500 - $999

In honor of Bennet Kelley, once enslaved then later employed by the Hailes, who lived in a cabin in back of the Homestead. Bennet was so dearly loved by the Haile family that he was buried in the family plot when he died in 1933. Members of Bennet's Circle of Friends will receive the Historic Haile Homestead's quarterly newsletter, recognition on a poster displayed at the Homestead, notice of special events, two Gift Certificates for tours at the Homestead (valid for one membership year), and free tours for the membership year for the member and up to three guests accompanying the member.

HAILE HERITAGE COUNCIL: $1,000 and up

For those committed to the continued preservation and operation of the Historic Haile Homestead so that others may come to know this truly unique historic treasure. Members of the Haile Heritage Council will receive the Historic Haile Homestead's quarterly newsletter, recognition on a special Haile Heritage Council plaque displayed at the Homestead, notice of special events, four Gift Certificates for tours at the Homestead (valid for one membership year), and free tours for the membership year for the member and any guests (no limit) accompanying the member.
